WINE LIST 2023

I would like to extend a warm welcome to Pineapple at Meldrum House Hotel.

Please find our carefully selected wine list. I have strived to create a well-balanced selection for you to choose from, whether that be classics from the old world, or up-and-comers from the new world. In this list, you will find a representation from all over the world. Wine is subjective in terms of taste, so I have broken this menu down into regions, countries and continents to guide you. If you're unsure on what wine to choose, please ask our knowledgeable restaurant team who will be more than happy to help you through the selection. I'm sure you will find something you know and love, or something new that you want to discover.

DESSERT WINE/PORT & SHERRY

401	Muscat de Beaumes-de-Venise, Domaine de Coyeux, Southern Rhône, France, 2009 v	£45
402	Corney & Barrow Sauternes, Bordeaux, France, 2018	£55

501	Corney & Barrow Special Reserve, Ruby Port, Wine & Soul, Douro, Portugal, NV v	£70
502	Smith Woodhouse, 10 Year Old Tawny, Douro, Portugal, NV	£90
503	Fonseca Vintage Port, Douro, Portugal, 1970	£650

1970 was an outstanding vintage and is widely considered one of the greatest port vintages of the last hundred years. In their youth the wines had ripe fruit flavours, concentrated tannins, and great structure which has allowed them to age beautifully over the decades. Now mature, it is one of the finest glasses of port you will ever taste. It was one of the last remaining bottles of the 1970 Vintage Port to be bottled in historic cellars in Ayr now owned by Corney & Barrow. They would have arrived in barrels to Ayr and bottled in 1972 by their predecessors Whigham's of Ayr. All bottles are labelled at the time of sale due to the high humidity in the cellars which would spoil the labels overtime. One of the few remaining bottles of this historic vintage.

Please note that bins 401/402 and 403 are in 37.5cl bottles

MAGNUMS

A small selection of larger formats ideal for small groups who will probably drink two bottles or more between them over dinner and perfectly suited to our 'Dome Dining Experience'. At the moment, we can offer a small selection, but should you have any other requests for other options in magnum or in even larger formats – a double magnum or Jereboam – then we would be happy to discuss with you with a view to organising a 'pre-order' for those wines.

So why magnums? Magnums are ideal for a special occasion and look great on a dinner table, but the most important appeal and benefit of a magnum or larger is that the maturation process is slower. Even though they are protected by the neck foil, corks do allow a small amount of oxygen to 'seep' into a bottle over time, aging and developing the juice at a very slow pace. Magnums expose double the amount of wine to roughly the same amount of oxygen, lengthening the aging process even more and keeping wines fresher for longer.
